PRINCIPAL'S ADDRESS

To the Class of 1993:

On behalf of the entire Fairhaven High School staff I offer heartfelt congratulations to you upon your completion of high school.

Four years ago we arrived together at Fairhaven High School. You now embark on another stage in your journey toward self-realization and the pursuit of your dreams. I hope the efforts of your school, parents, and community serve you well as you undertake the challenges and opportunities that lie ahead.

Best wishes for a life rich in health, friends, and personal fulfillment.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "John Newburn". The signature is fluid and elegant, with a large initial 'J'.

Dr. John Newburn

DEDICATION

It is with great appreciation and respect that our class dedicates the 1993 Huttlestonian to Mr. John Haaland. Throughout our four years at Fairhaven High, Mr. Haaland has helped to guide us through both good times and bad.

Mr. Haaland has assisted many students with patience and understanding, and a firm hand when needed. Without his guidance, the Class of '93 could never have come this far.

We leave with many thanks to Mr. Haaland from the Class of 1993.

A Time to be Ourselves

JUNIOR PROM

Our Junior Prom took place on April 16, 1992, at the Seaport Inn. The theme of the night was, "This is the Time to Remember." Master of Ceremonies, Matt Medeiros, announced the prom court. Adam Katz and Loran Lowney were crowned King and Queen. Prince and Princess were Jason Monteiro and Sarah Bruce.

APRIL 16, 1992

Following the prom, the junior class went to the Faunce Corner Club for a fun-filled night of swimming, basketball, movies, and many other activities.

The class of '93 will always remember: snow on prom night, the class of '92 trying to take over our prom, Maria Arruda's bad day, and staying up all night at the Faunce Corner Club.

"I told you Todd, hair doesn't make a person."

"Why do you have to be under five feet to be in this picture?"

"Nate, do you think his face is going to stay like that?"

"Hey! Aren't you leaving any for the rest of us?"

"Oh, my aching head."

"Thank goodness, only one more speaker."

"Just smile at the camera Sarah, no one will notice the fern in your hair."

"I said flip, flip, not skip!"

"I don't know who he is Tammy, just smile."

"C'mon guys, it's not that boring."

Co-Editors Tracy Brisson and Jill Queripal

As editors of the yearbook, we tried to produce a book that would reflect everyone's high school experience.

The theme of the book is "A Time to Remember." Our time at Fairhaven High School is now over and the memories will always be with us.

The cover of the 1993 Huttlestonian states "This is the time . . ." Inside are the different times that we'll cherish; hopefully they are good ones. The back of the book says "REMEMBER." Now that these times are over, we hope this is what you'll do — with happiness.

Though we are all going separate ways, it is imperative that we keep the past close to us so we can remember the good times to cheer us up when we're down. We hope that the events and people captured in this book represent your memories.
